

STANDARD MERCHANT CASH ADVANCE AGREEMENT

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Sale of Future Receipts. THIS IS NOT A LOAN. THIS IS THE PURCHASE OF FUTURE MERCHANT ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLES. Merchant(s) hereby sells, assigns, and transfers to CAF (making CAF the absolute owner) in consideration of the funds provided ("Purchase Price") specified above, all of each Merchant's future accounts, contract rights, and other obligations arising from or relating to the payment of monies from each Merchant's customers and/or other third party payors (the "Receivables", defined as all payments made by cash, check, credit or debit card, electronic transfer, or other form of monetary payment in the ordinary course of each merchant's business), for the payment of each Merchant's sale of goods or services until the amount specified above (the "Receivables Purchased Amount") has been delivered by Merchant(s) to CAF. Each Merchant hereby acknowledges that until the Receivables Purchased Amount has been received in full by CAF, the Specified Percentage of each Merchant's Receivables, up to the balance of the Receivables Purchased Amount, are the property of CAF and not the property of any Merchant. Each Merchant agrees that it is a fiduciary for CAF and that each Merchant will hold Receivables in trust for CAF in its capacity as a fiduciary for CAF.

The Receivables Purchased Amount shall be paid to CAF by each Merchant irrevocably authorizing only one depositing account acceptable to CAF (the "Account") to remit the percentage specified above (the "Specified Percentage") of each Merchant's settlement amounts due from each transaction, until such time as CAF receives payment in full of the Receivables Purchased Amount. Merchant hereby authorizes CAF to ACH debit the specified remittances from the Account on a daily basis and will provide CAF with all required access codes and monthly bank statements. Each Merchant will be held responsible for any fees resulting from a rejected ACH attempt (unless Merchant gave CAF prior notice that such ACH would be rejected) or an Event of Default (see Section 2). CAF is not responsible for any overdrafts or rejected transactions that may result from CAF's ACH debiting the Specified Percentage amounts under the terms of this Agreement, unless Merchant gave CAF prior notice that such ACH would be rejected. Merchant consents to CAF to allow Merchant's credit card processing company to split fund and pay CAF on a daily basis its percentage amount.

2. Additional Fees. In addition to the Receivables Purchased Amount, each Merchant will be held responsible to CAF for the following fees, where applicable:

A. $0.00 - to cover underwriting and the ACH debit program, as well as related expenses. This will be deducted from payment of the Purchase Price.

B. NSF/ Rejected ACH Fee - $250.00 (each), unless prior notice was provided to CAF with sufficient time to stop the ACH from being processed.

C. Blocked Account/Default - $2,500.00 - If there is an Event of Default under Section 34.

D. Court costs, arbitration fees, collection agency fees, attorney fees, expert fees, and any other expenses incurred in litigation, arbitration, or the enforcement of any of CAF's legal or contractual rights against each Merchant, if required, as explained in other Sections of this Agreement.

3. Cap on Collection of the Receivables Purchased Amount. The amount that CAF will collect from Merchant(s) towards the Receivables Purchased Amount during any specific week will be capped at $10,000.00 (the "Cap"). If the Specified Percentage of all Receivables for a specific week is less than the Cap, then in addition to the Specified Percentage of Receivables for that week, CAF will be permitted to collect any Receivables it did not previously collect due to the Cap such that the total amount collected during that week does not exceed the Cap. The Cap is not applicable to make up for a business day on which CAF is closed and does not ACH debit the Account, to subsequent attempts to collect a rejected or blocked ACH payment, to debit any amount due pursuant to a reconciliation as set forth in Section 4, or for the collection of any of the fees listed in Section 2 or if any Event of Default listed in Section 34 is considered by CAF to have taken place.

4. Reconciliations. Any Merchant may request that CAF conduct a reconciliation in order to ensure that the amount that CAF has collected equals the Specified Percentage of Merchant(s)'s Receivables under this Agreement. Any Merchant may request such a reconciliation by giving written notice of the request to CAF. A reconciliation may also be requested by e-mail to br.crstexas@gmail.com. If CAF has collected more than it was entitled to, then CAF will credit to the Account all amounts to which CAF was not entitled within seven days thereafter. If CAF collected less than it was entitled to, then CAF will debit from the Account all additional amounts to which CAF was entitled within seven days thereafter. In addition, the Initial Estimated Payment shall be adjusted, if applicable, to reflect the past and expected Specified Percentage of receivables of Merchant (the "Adjusted Estimated Payment"). In order to effectuate this reconciliation, any Merchant must produce with its request the login and password for the Account and any and all bank statements and merchant statements covering the period from the date of this Agreement through the date of the request for a reconciliation. CAF will complete each such reconciliation within two business days after receipt of a written request for one accompanied by the information and documents required for it. Nothing herein limits the amount of times that such a reconciliation may be requested.

5. Prepayments. Although there is no obligation to do so, any Merchant may prepay any amount towards the Receivables Purchased Amount. There will be no penalty for any prepayment made by any Merchant. Any Merchant may elect to terminate this Agreement by prepaying CAF the amount of the balance of the Receivables Purchased Amount at that time.

6. Merchant Deposit Agreement. Merchant(s) shall appoint a bank acceptable to CAF, to obtain electronic fund transfer services and/or "ACH" payments. Merchant(s) shall provide CAF and/or its authorized agent with all of the information, authorizations, and passwords necessary to verify each Merchant's Receivables. Merchant(s) shall authorize CAF and/or its agent(s) to deduct the amounts owed to CAF for the Receivables as specified herein from settlement amounts which would otherwise be due to each Merchant and to pay such amounts to CAF by permitting CAF to withdraw the Specified Percentage by ACH debiting of the account. The authorization shall be irrevocable absent CAF's written consent. Merchant shall execute all necessary agreements authorizing the Merchant's Credit Card Processing partner to split fund all receivables for the daily payment and remittance such split funding amounts to CAF.

7. Term of Agreement. The term of this Agreement is indefinite and shall continue until CAF receives the full Receivables Purchased Amount, or earlier if terminated pursuant to any provision of this Agreement. The provisions of Sections 4, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 22, 23, 28, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, and 58 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

8. Ordinary Course of Business. Each Merchant acknowledges that it is entering into this Agreement in the ordinary course of its business and that the payments to be made from each Merchant to CAF under this Agreement are being made in the ordinary course of each Merchant's business.

9. Financial Condition. Each Merchant authorizes CAF and its agent(s) to investigate each Merchant's financial responsibility and history and will provide to CAF any bank or financial statements, tax returns, and other documents and records, as CAF deems necessary prior to or at any time after execution of this Agreement. A photocopy of this authorization will be deemed acceptable for release of financial information. CAF is authorized to update such information and financial profiles from time to time as it deems appropriate.

10. Monitoring, Recording, and Electronic Communications. CAF may choose to monitor and/or record telephone calls with any Merchant and its owners, employees, and agents. By signing this Agreement, each Merchant agrees that any call between CAF and any Merchant or its representatives may be monitored and/or recorded. Each Merchant grants access for CAF to enter any Merchant's premises and to observe any Merchant's premises without any prior notice to any Merchant at any time after execution of this Agreement. CAF may use automated telephone dialing, text messaging systems, and e-mail to provide messages to Merchant(s), Owner(s) (Owner being defined as each person who signs this Agreement on behalf of a Merchant), about Merchant(s)'s account. Telephone messages may be played by a machine automatically when the telephone is answered whether answered by an Owner, or someone else. These messages may also be recorded by the recipient's answering machine or voice mail. Each Merchant, each Owner, gives CAF permission to call or send a text message to any telephone number given to CAF in connection with this Agreement and to play pre-recorded messages and/or send text messages with information about this Agreement and/or any Merchant's account over the phone. Each Merchant, each Owner, also gives CAF permission to communicate such information to them by e-mail. Each Merchant, each Owner, agree that CAF will not be liable to any of them for any such calls or electronic communications, even if information is communicated to an unintended recipient. Each Merchant, each Owner, acknowledge that when they receive such calls or electronic communications, they may incur a charge from the company that provides them with telecommunications, wireless, and/or Internet services, and that CAF has no liability for any such charges.

11. Accuracy of Information Furnished by Merchant and Investigation Thereof. To the extent set forth herein, each of the parties is obligated upon his, her, or its execution of the Agreement to all terms of the Agreement. Each Merchant and each Owner signing this Agreement represent that he or she is authorized to sign this Agreement for each Merchant, legally binding said Merchant to its obligations under this Agreement and that the information provided herein and in all of CAF's documents, forms, and recorded interview(s) is true, accurate, and complete in all respects. CAF may produce a monthly statement reflecting the delivery of the Specified Percentage of Receivables from Merchant(s) to CAF. An investigative report may be made in connection with the Agreement. Each Merchant and each Owner signing this Agreement authorize CAF, its agents and representatives, and any credit-reporting agency engaged by CAF, to (i) investigate any references given or any other statements obtained from or about each Merchant or any of its Owners for the purpose of this Agreement, and (ii) pull credit report at any time now or for so long as any Merchant and/or Owners(s) continue to have any obligation to CAF under this Agreement or for CAF's ability to determine any Merchant's eligibility to enter into any future agreement with CAF. Any misrepresentation made by any Merchant or Owner in connection with this Agreement may constitute a separate claim for fraud or intentional misrepresentation. Authorization for soft pulls: Each Merchant and each Owner understands that by signing this Agreement, they are providing 'written instructions' to CAF under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, authorizing CAF to obtain information from their personal credit profile or other information from Experian, TransUnion, and Equifax. Each Merchant authorizes CAF to obtain such information solely to conduct a pre-qualification for credit. Authorization for hard pulls: Each Merchant and each Owner understands that by signing this Agreement, they are providing 'written instructions' to CAF under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, authorizing CAF to obtain information from their personal credit profile or other information from Experian, TransUnion, and Equifax. Each Merchant authorizes CAF to obtain such information in accordance with a merchant cash advance application.

12. Transactional History. Each Merchant authorizes its bank to provide CAF with its banking and/or credit card processing history.

13. Indemnification. Each Merchant jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless each Merchant's credit card and check processors (collectively, "Processor") and Processor's officers, directors, and shareholders against all losses, damages, claims, liabilities, and expenses (including reasonable attorney and expert fees) incurred by Processor resulting from (a) claims asserted by CAF for monies owed to CAF from any Merchant and (b) actions taken by any Processor in reliance upon information or instructions provided by CAF.

14. No Liability. In no event will CAF be liable for any claims asserted by any Merchant under any legal theory for lost profits, lost revenues, lost business opportunities, exemplary, punitive, special, incidental, indirect, or consequential damages, each of which is waived by each Merchant.

15. Sale of Receivables. Each Merchant and CAF agree that the Purchase Price under this Agreement is in exchange for the Receivables Purchased Amount and that such Purchase Price is not intended to be, nor shall it be construed as a loan from CAF to any Merchant. CAF is entering into this Agreement knowing the risks that each Merchant's business may decline or fail, resulting in CAF not receiving the Receivables Purchased Amount. Any Merchant going bankrupt or going out of business or experiencing a slowdown in business or a delay in collecting Receivables will not on its own without anything more be considered a breach of this Agreement. Each Merchant agrees that the Purchase Price in exchange for the Receivables pursuant to this Agreement equals the fair market value of such Receivables. CAF has purchased and shall own all the Receivables described in this Agreement up to the full Receivables Purchased Amount as the Receivables are created. Payments made to CAF in respect to the full amount of the Receivables shall be conditioned upon each Merchant's sale of products and services and the payment therefor by each Merchant's customers in the manner provided in this Agreement. Although certain jurisdictions may require the disclosure of an Annual Percentage Rate or APR in connection with this Agreement, those disclosures do not change the fact that the transaction encompassed by this Agreement is not a loan and does not have an interest rate.

16. Power of Attorney. Each Merchant irrevocably appoints CAF as its agent and attorney-in-fact with full authority to take any action or execute any instrument or document to settle all obligations due to CAF, or, if CAF considers an Event of Default to have taken place under Section 34, to settle all obligations due to CAF from each Merchant, including without limitation (i) to obtain and adjust insurance; (ii) to collect monies due or to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral (which is defined in Section 33); (iii) to receive, endorse and collect any checks, notes, drafts, instruments, documents, or chattel paper in connection with clause (i) or clause (ii) above; (iv) to sign each Merchant's name on any invoice, bill of lading, or assignment directing customers or account debtors to make payment directly to CAF; and (v) to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceeding which CAF may deem necessary for the collection of any of the unpaid Receivables Purchased Amount from the Collateral, or otherwise to enforce its rights with respect to payment of the Receivables Purchased Amount.

17. Protections Against Default. The following Protections 1 through 7 may be invoked by CAF, immediately and without notice to any Merchant in the event:

(a) Any Merchant takes any action to discourage the use of methods of payment ordinarily and customarily used by its customers or permits any event to occur that could have an adverse effect on the use, acceptance, or authorization of checks and credit cards for the purchase of any Merchant's services and products;

(b) Any Merchant changes its arrangements with any Processor in any way that is adverse to CAF;

(c) Any Merchant changes any Processor through which the Receivables are settled to another electronic check and/or credit card processor or permits any event to occur that could cause diversion of any Merchant's check and/or credit card transactions to another such processor;

(d) Any Merchant interrupts the operation of its business (other than adverse weather, natural disasters, or acts of God) or transfers, moves, sells, disposes, or otherwise conveys its business or assets without (i) the express prior written consent of CAF and (ii) the written agreement of any purchaser or transferee to the assumption of all of any Merchant's obligations under this Agreement pursuant to documentation satisfactory to CAF; or

(e) Any Merchant takes any action, fails to take any action, or offers any incentive—economic or otherwise—the result of which will be to induce any customer or customers to pay for any Merchant's goods or services with any means other than checks and/or credit cards that are settled through Processor. These protections are in addition to any other remedies available to CAF at law, in equity, or otherwise available pursuant to this Agreement.

Each Merchant hereby grants to CAF an irrevocable power-of-attorney, which power-of-attorney will be coupled with an interest, and hereby appoints CAF and its representatives as each Merchant's attorney-in-fact to take any and all action necessary to direct such new or additional credit card and/or check processor to make payment to CAF as contemplated by this Section.

18. Protection of Information. Each Merchant and each person signing this Agreement on behalf of each Merchant and/or as Owner, in respect of himself or herself personally, authorizes CAF to disclose information concerning each Merchant, Owner credit standing and business conduct to agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, and credit reporting bureaus. Each Merchant, and Owner hereby waives to the maximum extent permitted by law any claim for damages against CAF or any of its affiliates relating to any (i) investigation undertaken by or on behalf of CAF as permitted by this Agreement or (ii) disclosure of information as permitted by this Agreement.

19. Confidentiality. Each Merchant understands and agrees that the terms and conditions of the products and services offered by CAF, including this Agreement and any other CAF documents (collectively, "Confidential Information") are proprietary and confidential information of CAF. Accordingly, unless disclosure is required by law or court order, Merchant(s) shall not disclose Confidential Information of CAF to any person other than an attorney, accountant, financial advisor, or employee of any Merchant who needs to know such information for the purpose of advising any Merchant ("Advisor"), provided such Advisor uses such information solely for the purpose of advising any Merchant and first agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Section 19.

20. D/B/As. Each Merchant hereby acknowledges and agrees that CAF may be using "doing business as" or "d/b/a" names in connection with various matters relating to the transaction between CAF and each Merchant, including the filing of UCC-1 financing statements and other notices or filings.

21. Financial Condition and Financial Information. Each Merchant represents, warrants, and covenants that its bank and financial statements, copies of which have been furnished to CAF, and future

28. No Bankruptcy. Each Merchant represents, warrants, and covenants that as of the date of this Agreement, it does not contemplate and has not filed any petition for bankruptcy protection under Title 11 of the United States Code and there has been no involuntary petition brought or pending against any Merchant. Each Merchant further warrants that it does not anticipate filing any such bankruptcy petition and it does not anticipate that an involuntary petition will be filed against it. Each Merchant further warrants that there will be no statutory presumption that it would have been insolvent on the date of this Agreement.

33. Security Interest. To secure each Merchant's payment and performance obligations to CAF under this Agreement and any future agreement with CAF, each Merchant hereby grants to CAF a security interest in collateral (the "Collateral"), that is defined as collectively: all accounts-receivable, and (b) all proceeds, as that term is defined by Article 9 of the UCC. The parties acknowledge and agree that any security interest granted to CAF under any other agreement between any Merchant and CAF (the "Cross-Collateral") will secure the obligations hereunder and under this Agreement. Negative Pledge: Each Merchant agrees not to create, incur, assume, or permit to exist, directly or indirectly, any lien on or with respect to any of the Collateral or the Cross-Collateral, as applicable.

Each Merchant agrees to execute any documents or take any action in connection with this Agreement as CAF deems necessary to perfect or maintain CAF's first priority security interest in the Collateral and the Cross-Collateral, including the execution of any account control agreements. Each Merchant hereby authorizes CAF to file any financing statements deemed necessary by CAF to perfect or maintain CAF's security interest, which financing statements may contain notification that each Merchant has granted a negative pledge to CAF with respect to the Collateral and the Cross-Collateral, and that any subsequent lienor may be tortiously interfering with CAF's rights. Each Merchant shall be liable for and CAF may charge and collect all costs and expenses, including but not limited to attorney fees, which may be incurred by CAF in protecting, preserving, and enforcing CAF's security interest and rights. If any Merchant goes out of business due to economic failure, is not otherwise in default of this Agreement, and provides CAF with written notice of the closure within two business days thereafter, then such closure will not be deemed an Event of Default.

35. Remedies. In case any Event of Default occurs and is not waived, CAF may proceed to protect and enforce its rights or remedies by suit in equity or by action at law, or both, whether for the specific performance of any covenant, agreement, or other provision contained herein, or to enforce the discharge of each Merchant's obligations hereunder, or any other legal or equitable right or remedy. All rights, powers, and remedies of CAF in connection with this Agreement, including each Protection listed in Section 17, may be exercised at any time by CAF after the occurrence of an Event of Default, are cumulative and not exclusive, and will be in addition to any other rights, powers, or remedies provided by law or equity. In case any Event of Default occurs and is not waived, CAF may elect that Merchant(s) be required to pay to CAF 25% of the unpaid balance of the Receivables Purchased Amount as liquidated damages for any reasonable expenses incurred by CAF in connection with recovering the unpaid balance of the Receivables Purchased Amount ("Reasonable Expenses"), CAF will not be required to itemize or prove its Reasonable Expenses, and all Merchant(s) agree that the Reasonable Expenses bear a reasonable relationship to CAF's actual expenses incurred in connection with recovering the unpaid balance of the Receivables Purchased Amount.

36. Required Notifications. Each Merchant is required to give CAF written notice at least one day prior to any filing under Title 11 of the United States Code. Merchant(s) are required to give CAF at least seven days' written notice prior to the closing of any sale of all or substantially all of any Merchant's assets or stock.

From and after the effective date of any such assignment or transfer by CAF, whether or not any Merchant has actual notice thereof, this Agreement and each Related Agreement shall be deemed amended and modified (without the need for any further action on the part of any Merchant or CAF) such that the assignee shall be deemed a party to this Agreement and any such Related Agreement and, to the extent provided in the assignment document between CAF and such assignee (the "Assignment Agreement"), have the rights and obligations of CAF under this Agreement and such Related Agreements with respect to the portion of the Receivables Purchased Amount set forth in such Assignment Agreement, including but not limited to rights in the Receivables, Collateral and Additional Collateral, CAF's rights under Section 17 of this Agreement (Protections Against Default), and to receive damages from any Merchant following a breach of this Agreement by any Merchant. 46. Legal Fees. If CAF prevails in any litigation or arbitration with any Merchant, then that Merchant must pay CAF's reasonable attorney fees, which may include a contingency fee of up to 33% of the amount claimed.

47. Class Action Waiver. CAF, each Merchant, agree that they may bring claims against each other relating to this Agreement only in their individual capacities, and not as a plaintiff or class action member in any purported class or representative proceedings.
